

Jane Stubbs, Christine Hasman, & Helen Mason

Sixteen-Eighty-Five

with Wendy Leonard (soprano)

A Concert

of Songs, Solo & Trio-sonatas by Renaissance & Baroque composers, including John Blow, King Henry V¹¹¹, Monteverdi, Telemann. selections from Handel's 'Water music' & Boccherini's famous 'Minuet'.

Performed on a variety of sizes of recorders, baroque flute, harpsichord, voices, crumhorns & percussion

Saturday, July 7th 2018

All Saints Church, Collingham

Nr Newark

7:30pm

Admission by donation, (suggested amount ca. £5)

Refreshments will be served in the interval

John Blow, composer, organist, and teacher.

Tradition has it that Blow was born in North Collingham, in 1646. Died Westminster, London in 1708. Master of the Children of the Chapel Royal. Supporter and friend of Purcell.